

Profit or Loss statement.

Revenue from operation: It known as sale a services, represents the income generated by a company from its core business activities.

Other income: Income generated from the company core business activities such as sales of product interest on investment or rent income.

Cost of Material consumed: The cost of raw material or good used to produce the company's product.

Excise duty: A tax on the production or sale of goods.

Purchase of Stock in Trade: The cost of buying good or materials for resale.

Change in Inventory: The increase or decrease in the value of inventory held by the company.

Employee Benefit expense: The cost of employee salaries benefit and other compensation.

Finance cost: The cost of borrowing money including interest and fee.

Depreciation and Amortization: The cost of asset depreciation and amortization over time

Other expenses: Miscellaneous expenses not categorized elsewhere

Profit before tax: The company profit before income tax is deducted.

Tax expenses: The amount of income tax paid by company A

Net Profit